ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to extend my warmest thanks and gratitude to the following people for the help and encouragement which they extended to me during my studies:

Dr HD Mabasa, my supervisor for the professional training which he gave me. His comments throughout the process of this study stimulated my thoughts and made this study a success.

Ms Mamphago Modiba, a staff member of Adult Education at University of Limpopo for introducing me to the computer for the first time in 2003.

All my study mates in the Department of Adult Education – University of Limpopo, especially Mr Jonas Mohoto for his encouraging words during my studies.

The ABET coordinator in Polokwane cluster, Mr Mojalefa DD, for giving me permission to conduct research in Pietersburg circuit.

All centre managers, educators and adult learners of Pietersburg Comprehensive, Flora Park and Rethabile Adult Learning Centres, for allowing me to conduct research at their centres and for taking part as interviewees. Your cooperation has made this research a success.

My colleagues at work, Mrs Ramashala RA, Mr Chidi MJ and Mr Phalane IM, the principal of Rantshu Primary School, for proof reading this report. May God bless.

My neighbours, and also family friends, Robin and Tracey Ayliffe, for their time in proof reading this dissertation. Thank you, Moruti and MmaMoruti, for the good work.

Dr Ledwaba MJ, for the encouraging words and prayers rendered to me during the process of this research. Thank you 'Tlou' and God bless you.

My husband, Moraswi Jacob, and our children, Ledile and Mokgaetji, for the support they gave me during the course of this study. You encouraged me to complete this study. Your invaluable support is highly appreciated.

My younger and only sister, Kwena, and her children, Khutšo and Chuene for their unwavering moral support and daily assistance they extended to me during the course of this study. You always told me 'where there is a will, there is a way'.

My mother, Mokgaetji Josephina, for the unwavering support she gave me especially during my research meetings. Mma! You took my children for holidays to enable me to continue with my studies. Thank you Morolong!

My son Mokgaetji wa Lehlogonolo, and his big brother, Khutšo Mokgaetji, for taking photos during interview and observation sessions. You did a beautiful job. Well done children.

The Lord God Almighty – I praise You, Father, for righting all my wrongs, for giving me wisdom and power in my studies and I will praise You again and again.
